

Prospectus - American Awesome Art AAAF Virtual Art Exhibitions /

Call for entries:

Media accepted for consideration (i.e. Painting, photography, Video)

The subject matter is Open Theme for the AAAF Virtual show.

We will choose artists to show two pieces and a short video one minute long.

Art and video will showcase for two to twelve months online and there is no installation required.

Entries must be submitted as digital files in Jpeg format. 2 Images of available work, 300 dpi, size 150k Max.

Images: (i.e. 1_Artist last name_Title_Dimensions_Medium_Price)

Send your artist statement, bio and two images, entry form, artists agreement and your website, links of your works and where you can be contacted. Please send to info@aaafnewyork.org

Video: should be 60min.max. Telling us about your process- what inspires you and why you think art is important?

Deadline for entries:

There is no entry deadline at this moment.

All artwork will be selected by December 13,

December 27 Opening Reception 6pm-8pm

Show will be held for two months or twelve months artists choice.

Artists can choose:

1-an ongoing Show from January 1 2021 to December 31 2021 or,

2- Two month show starting December 2020 to January 2021

-Entries for AAAF are up to the curator's discretion. If after viewing the delivered artwork the art does not match the Jpeg entry, or unframed artworks. Entries may be rejected from the exhibition.

There is no entry fees for AAAF shows

-Exhibited artwork will be available for sale (Unless artist designates entry as NFS).

All entrants agree that any artwork they submit to AAAF Show may be used for marketing and promotional purposes. This may include publication online, printed materials, advertisement.

Contact / Questions

Stella Lillig

Artist/founder

American Awesome Art AAAF Virtual Exhibitions

info@aaafnewyork.org - www.aaafnewyork.org

Let us Know if you would be interested to volunteer for AAAF Shows.

Notes:

Keep in mind: Artists contact information like phone number, email and website should correct to give artists more exposure and possible art sales. please, make sure it is clear and up to date..

These exhibitions are virtual based- artists are not required to install their works.